

Parlement francophone bruxellois

The Brussels (French speaking) Parliament with the Belgian Collective to prevent genocides and fight against negationism, Women for Justice, AGBU Europe and the David Susskind Jewish Community Secular Centre have the pleasure to invite you to the conference

The tragedy of the Yazidi women From violence to forced exile

February 28 2019 – from 9:00 AM to 01:00 PM

9:00: Welcome

9:15: Introduction by Julie de Groote, President of the Brussels Parliament

9:30: The Yazidis: History and intersecting perspectives

- Vicken Cheterian, historian, Geneva University
- Father Patrick Desbois, president and founder, Yahad in Unum
- Belen Sanchez, 'Démocratie ou barbarie', Wallonia-Brussels Federation

10:30: The women: twice victims

- Testimonies of two Yazidi women (Iraq, 2014)
- Leyla Ferman, director, Women for Justice
- Esther Mujawayo, therapist and survivor of the Tutsi genocide in Rwanda

11:50: How to bring Yazidi cases before courts and create (social) justice:
creating a legal network and social support

- Reyhan Yalçindag Baydemir, lawyer, Women for Justice

12:10: Exchange with the audience and conclusions

- Grégoire Jakhian, member of the Belgian Collective

12:30: Drink and sandwiches

Required registration before 2019 at : .....@.....

Entry : rue du Lombard, 69 – 1000 Brussels

With the support of

